Applications Assessment Process and Methodology

The Awards' applications follow a two-stage evaluation to ensure that the best-impact projects and organizations get recognized for their efforts.

Stage I: Evaluation by the Partner Institutions

For the first stage of assessment of the award applications, we have an expert panel consisting of academia and research leaders who would be evaluating the applications based on their knowledge and expertise in line with pre-defined parameters. The list of our Stage I Evaluation Partners is available on the India CSR Summit website.

Each partner institution will evaluate 2 to 3 categories of the awards based on their core expertise.
Evaluation partners: IIM (Lucknow), TISS, IIFM Bhopal, XISS Ranchi, Faculty of Social Sciences, University of Delhi, Jagran Lakecity University.

Note: Each applicant will have to present their Award application to the Stage 1 Jury Panel virtually. The applicants will be informed about their slots (date and time) at least 3-5 days in advance. The presentation will be in virtual mode.

Stage II: The Grand Jury

After careful evaluation of applications in Stage I by the institution partners, a Grand Jury round is organized as Stage II assessment where 4 shortlisted applications from each of the categories will be presented to the Grand Jury. The expert panel of the jury will select the best projects and declare the winner under each category.

Note: Note: Each shortlisted applicant will have to present their Award application to the Stage 2 Jury Panel virtually. The applicants will be informed about their slots (date and time) at least 3-5 days in advance. These presentations will also be in virtual mode.

The Grand Jury Members

The grand jury will comprise 15-25 domain experts from different thematic areas. In the last 5 years, we had members from The World Bank, BOSCH India, Birla Institute of Management and Technology, United Way India, UNDP, UNICEF, World Health Organization, etc.

The names of the Jury-members for 2023 will be announced on the event website by 30ᵗʰ August 2023

Terms and Conditions

» The award is an initiative of CSRBOX (Renalysis Consultants Pvt. Ltd.) in association with a few like-minded organizations. The assessment process for the applications has been published in public and any individual or organization can't challenge it. All applicants agree to this.

» The applicant, by applying for the awards category, agrees with the decision and outcome of the process laid out in this document.

» The application fee for the award is non-refundable and non-transferable.

» If an application does not fit well in the category applied for, the Evaluation Partner/Jury may consider it for another best-fit category.

» An incomplete application form will not be accepted and the application fee will not be refunded.

» The organizers on behalf of evaluators can ask for more information from applicants during the application assessment process.

» If at any stage of the evaluation, the Award host organization comes to know that the information provided in the form is not correct or does not present the facts, then the application will be rejected.

» Applications should be submitted in the given format only.

» If due to insufficient numbers in a particular category of awards, entries are not adjudged, the fee will be refunded back to the applicants of that particular category.

» It is the responsibility of the applicant organization to provide facts and validated information in the application form.

» As part of our commitment to fairness and transparency, we discourage considering the same project as an award winner if it has been selected for the same category in the previous three years.

» Conflict of Interest: Any project or program, where the CSRBOX group has been a party as an advisory or implementation support partner, will not be eligible for applying for this Award. In case any such application is received, the application will be returned and the fee will be refunded.

Evaluation Partners

Indian Institute of Management, Lucknow

The Indian Institute of Management Lucknow is fourth in the prestigious IIM family of management schools to be established in India after IIM Calcutta, IIM Ahmedabad and IIM Bangalore. The establishment of IIMs was envisioned and initiated by the first Prime Minister of India – Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru.

The Institute was established in the year 1984. Since then, IIML has touched million lives directly or indirectly through its faculty, alumni and support staff. IIML moulds its students into value driven leaders, managers and global players. The institute undertakes a diverse range of academic activities aimed at creation, dissemination and application of management knowledge and practice.

IIM Lucknow boasts a distinguished faculty comprising experienced professors and industry practitioners who provide valuable insights and mentorship to the students. The institute also emphasizes research and has a strong focus on producing cutting-edge research in various domains of management.

Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS)

The Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS) was established in 1936 as the Sir Dorabji Tata Graduate School of Social Work. In 1944, it was renamed as the Tata Institute of Social Sciences. The year 1964 was an important landmark in the history of the Institute, when it was declared Deemed to be a University under Section 3 of the University Grants Commission Act (UGC), 1956. Since its inception, the Vision of the TISS has been to be an institution of excellence in higher education that continually responds to changing social realities through the development and application of knowledge, towards creating a people-centred, ecologically sustainable and just society that promotes and protects dignity, equality, social justice and human rights for all.

Indian Institute of Forest Management (IIFM)

The Indian Institute of Forest Management is a sectoral management institute, which constantly endeavors to evolve knowledge useful for the managers in the area of Forest, Environment and Natural Resources Management and allied sectors. It disseminates such knowledge in ways that promote its application by individuals and organizations.

The students, the faculty, the courses, the field visits and the lush green campus all play to form the dynamic culture of IIFM. IIFM gives independence to students to run various committees and cells. The culture of IIFM builds in the students, an ability to view the business world from all perspectives – be it economic or environmental, be it profit or people. It drives the students in pursuit of knowledge and inculcates leadership and teamwork in them.

Xavier Institute of Social Service (XISS)

In 1973, Xavier Institute of Social Service (XISS), Ranchi was registered as a separate educational society under the Societies Registration Act, 1960. Since then, in history, it has been recognized as one of the most outstanding management schools in India. In all its years of existence, XISS has upheld the great task of imparting higher knowledge, critical thinking and academic rigour to prepare men and women, who serve and lead the society. Epitomizing wide, profound and solid learning, XISS has nurtured students to be fit in any arena of their life journey.

XISS focuses on Academics to bring in more academic rigour, enhance quality of curricula, explore new consultancies etc. along with the human values and social concerns for sustainable growth. It means the Institute believes inn nurturing professionals with a difference who takes care of Profits, People and Planet. XISS strongly believes in collaboration between academia and industry to enhance corporate relations. Corporate interface and International Connect is another aspect the institution believes in exploring for an all-round exposure of the students.

Faculty of Social Sciences, University of Delhi

Department of Social Work University of Delhi was established in 1946 as Y.W.C.A School of Social Work and later renamed as Delhi School of Social Work (DSSW). The school was started under the directorship of Ms.Nora Ventura who was then the secretary of religious education committee of the Y.W.C.A, with two students-one from Sindh and the other from Bengal. D.S.S.W was taken over by University of Delhi in 1962 and became a post graduate institution maintained by the university. In 1979 Delhi School of Social Work (DSSW) became the Department of Social Work, University of Delhi. The main aim of the department is to develop human resources for competent and elective professional social work practice, teaching and research with diverse range of individuals, groups and communities by using a framework of social justice and human rights as well as sustainable and participatory development.

Jagran Lakecity University
